With panoramic views overlooking Le'ahi (Diamond Head) and the dynamic skyline of Honolulu, this handsome mid-century modern home has been restored and sensitively updated to enhance its original design for modern living. Built in 1960, the home was designed by architect Dennis Toyomura, a former AIA Hawaii officer and previously a designer at the firm of Wimberly & Cook. The classic redwood walls and vaulted ceilings are complimented by expansive custom windows and sliding doors, allowing for unobstructed views from each of the living
