Welcome to Green Homes at Lualualei! This home is only 10-years old but it has been gently lived in, very carefully maintained and move-in ready for whoever is ready to enjoy ocean views and sunsets from their lanai. Because this house has been gently lived in, the floors, cabinets, vanities, shower walls, and anything else you can think of, look brand new! Additionally, the whole inside and outside of the house were just repainted. This quality-built home is perfectly insulated from the heat and noise with dual pane and tinted window, black-out blinds, double wall
