"The Crest," an architecturally significant landmark oceanfront home in Diamond Head, offers unparalleled views and timeless design. Originally designed by Earl Nisbet, Frank Lloyd Wright's apprentice, 4131 Black Point Place has been dubbed "The Fallingwater of Honolulu." Re-imagined and modernized in 2016, this one-of-a-kind residence fuses island luxury living with Hawaii's natural majesty on a unique scale. Wright's coined Organic Architecture flows in Nisbet's spectacular steel-frame creation, where terraced cliffside architecture maximizes Pacific Ocean
