Once in a while something special comes along. This enchanting homestead in Waimea, Big Island feautes 3 acres of some of the most fertile soil in the state with the cleanest air and safest lava zone on the Big Island, with an artistically restored Japanese-style home, walking bridge over a seasonal stream, several fruit trees and fenced pastures for animals. A peaceful retreat, yet only minutes to shopping centers like Parker Ranch, allowing you the perfect blend of convenience, privacy and solitude. The main home (completely re-built in 2011) features 4 bedrooms, 2
