Rare opportunity to own within a newly established CPR community built around a functioning, income-producing agricultural model on O'ahu's North Shore. Framed by sweeping views of Mt. Ka'ala and the Pacific Ocean, each unit offers a balance of productive farmland and long-term value. This is not raw land — it is part of a working farm with a centralized, professionally managed agricultural operation already underway, focused on high-value crops suited to Waialua's climate. Fertile soils, steady trade winds, and year-round sunshine support consistent production
