This exceptional Lanikai beachfront estate features over half an acre of land extending from the street directly to the sand and ocean. Unlike many of the neighboring properties that sit above rock and reef, this home opens directly onto the sandy beach, offering a rare and true beachfront experience with views of the Mokulua Islands. The house is built for how people actually live. Walls of glass retract and disappear, so the kitchen, dining area, pool courtyard, and beach read as one space. The open kitchen is where people gather, sized for a crowd and
