Nuuanu Valley doesn't need much introduction to buyers who know Honolulu. Dowsett is among its most established enclaves, and lots of this scale rarely surface here. At 15,636 square feet, the site sits just above Nuuanu Stream. The sound of moving water is a given. So is the privacy. The upper valley's cooler temperatures and consistent greenery make it one of the few places on Oahu where a home can feel genuinely removed from the city while remaining close to it. Downtown Honolulu is minutes away. The neighborhood itself has the kind of quiet
