A classic 1930s vintage residence now available in the desirable Puunui neighborhood, known for its charm and "small town" feel. This architectural gem features period details including high ceilings with decorative moldings, beadboard paneling, and original built-in cabinetry with French doors. These historic elements are complemented by modern upgrades, including an owned PV system, an increased 200-amp electrical service, and recent improvements such as an updated kitchen, luxury vinyl plank flooring, and fresh interior and exterior paint.
