Step through the private gates and discover a place where time seems to slow down. Nestled on just over an acre of landscaped grounds, this charming country property has been lovingly cared for by the same owners for decades and is currently operating as a working flower farm. The character-filled main home is 3 bedrooms and 1 bath, featuring original wood flooring through much of the home, a spacious kitchen and a split A/C in the living room. An additional detached bath and flexible-use space provide extra functionality for guests, hobbies, farm or fun
