Most homes trade elevation for the view—climb higher, live farther from everything. This Halekoa Drive home rewrites that story: nearly 180 degrees of open ocean and Diamond Head from every level, perched low enough to keep daily life close. Four bedrooms sit upstairs; below, a detached rental unit with its own entrance, bath, and wet bar gives you a flexible lower level - an income offset, a guest suite, or extra room for your Ohana. Sixteen owned solar panels and solar hot water run on net metering, putting the energy math in your favor. A
