Set on one of Hawaii Loa Ridge's most coveted lots, this five bedroom, six and one half bath residence delivers uninterrupted views of Diamond Head, the Pacific Ocean, and Honolulu's coastline from nearly every room, with complete privacy from neighbors and the street. Award-winning architect Jeff Long paired steel-and-concrete construction with interiors built by artisans whose past work spans ultra-luxury yachts and the ateliers of Chanel, Cartier, and Hermes. Book-matched travertine and marble carry through the home, alongside Spinneybeck and Holly
