Set within an intimate enclave of Tropical Mediterranean homes on expansive properties, 834 Alewa Drive offers privacy, craftsman finishes and sweeping views from the Koʻolau/Pali mountains across Punchbowl, Diamond Head and Downtown to the ocean. Its clay-tile roof, and "bumpy" stucco exterior reflect influences reminiscent of Hart Wood and C. W. Dickey. The main level offers easy single-level living with a vaulted-ceiling great room, chef's kitchen, dining and TV rooms, powder room, primary suite with walk-in closet, marble spa bath and
