The historic landmark Lloyd Case House holds a commanding presence in Manoa Valley, on over 13,000 square feet overlooking Manoa and the Honolulu skyline. Built in 1928 by renowned architect Hart Wood, this majestic English Tudor-style home sits on the National as well as the State Register of Historic Places, so property taxes are only $300 per year. The grand residence epitomizes 1920s craftsmanship with its half-timber and stucco exterior, original hardwood floors, comforting built-ins and original wrought iron light fixtures. The main house
