A little step back in time, with room to make it yours. Built in 1961 and set about a block from the beach, this Ewa Beach home brings to mind bike rides to Hau Bush, snack runs to the family-owned corner store, and catching the manapua man when he comes through. When the fruit on your mature Mapulehu mango tree ripens, there's always a good excuse to bring a few mangoes over to the neighbors. On the 5,460 sq. ft. fee-simple lot, there's room to plant a garden, set up a table on the front lawn for a weekend cookout, or start a tradition of your own. The enclosed
