Seventeen floors up, with views outstretching the Ala Wai, this unit looks out across the canal and golf course toward the Koolau mountains. Mornings start with canoe paddlers gliding down the canal and a walk or run along the path right across the boulevard. Everything Waikiki is known for is a short stroll away: the beach, Kuhio and Kalakaua Avenues, the International Market Place, the local favorites on Kapahulu Avenue, the Honolulu Zoo and Kapiolani Park, and golfers can be on the course in minutes. Fee simple, at an approachable price for Waikiki
