Welcome to one of Waiehu's most compelling properties. This 34-acre parcel offers sweeping 360-degree views of the ocean and mountains, with open, usable landscapes enhanced by fresh water flowing through natural ditches across the property. Backing directly to State land, the setting creates a great privacy buffer. The property is improved with six existing homes and structures with a current rental income of approximately $11,700 per month. A mature macadamia nut orchard adds an established agricultural component, complementing the land's
