Nestled below the legendary Road to Hana at the top of Door of Faith, this seven plus acre North Shore sanctuary is more than property—it is living land, shaped by decades of vision and aloha. Rain-kissed and abundantly green, it balances wild jungle with hand-tended gardens, where every corner tells a story. Wander through groves of palms, ti, and ginger, past shimmering ponds alive with water plants and fish. Meandering paths invite exploration and reflection, while hearing the sound of the ocean carried on the trade winds. At the top of the property, the main home
