Unit 4 at Pohakuokala Views is a 0.64-acre Main House homesite positioned along the upper rise of the CPR, offering elevation, privacy, and protected bicoastal, three-island ocean views stretching from Lana'i to Moloka'i. The topography features a gentle, gradual change in elevation, creating natural dimension while still providing a clearly defined and highly usable building area. Its orientation captures the West Maui Mountains and the coastlines below with long-view stability. Water is provided through a shared 1-inch County meter with assigned allocations. The CPR
