Take a quick drive down a country road in lower Kula, Maui's breadbasket, and you'll find 20 acres of gorgeous, vacant, gently sloping agricultural land. You will be greeted with big ocean views across the North Shore to Molokai, the West Maui Mountains, and Ma'alaea harbor. When you look mauka, you'll see absolutely majestic Haleakala vistas as well. You may come for the views, but you'll stay for the rich soil and the land's diversity. The most difficult decision you will have to make may be where to build, as there are multiple spots with different
