At the end of a country road, tucked behind a majestic Royal Poinciana tree, sits a true North Shore treasure. Originally designed by renowned Maui architect Harry Rice and now reborn as a mid-century modern retreat, the home is elegantly enveloped by more than four acres of lush, private gardens. Light-filled living spaces open to expansive lanais and a spa-like outdoor bath featuring a 72" concrete soaking tub and custom shower. The gourmet kitchen boasts a 48" Hestan gas range, paneled Hestan refrigerator, European-style cabinetry, and a
