Perched at the top of tranquil Launiupoko, 81 Iliahi remains a landmark residence, now refreshed with thoughtful updates that elevate its already captivating design. The exterior has been newly painted, including the fascia, trim, and exterior doors. Inside, carpeting in the guest bedrooms and bonus room has been replaced with new laminate flooring, and all sliding-door glass has also been replaced. At nearly 1,000 feet above sea level, the home enjoys its own gentle microclimate and unobstructed 180-degree views of the Pacific, with Lanai and Molokai stretching
