Spacious 1.46 acre agricultural farm on the slopes of upper Waiehu, Wailuku.

Originally a taro farm, the property has Kuleana water rights and has been planted with additional tropical fruits, coconut and cacao, creating a year-round producing food forest. This property has two original, plantation era dwellings. Each home has 2 bedrooms, 2 baths and its own driveway entrance and individual electric and water meters. Some property improvements have been made and may not conform to county records. The primary home has a new, 5-bedroom, septic system
