Settled in the tranquil jungles of Door of Faith Road sits a quaint home full of wonderful surprises. The location offers easy access while being surrounded by lush, peaceful land. With rich growth potential, the property is ideal for farming, gardening, or creating a private retreat. The original structure is a 100-year-old schoolhouse, carrying the charm and character of the past into the present. While the home does need some work, its combination of potential and location makes it a rare opportunity to create a truly special property. As it stands, the home is
