Never before on the market, this property is being offered by its original family for the very first time. The home is in need of complete repair; but A diamond in the rough! Centrally located for maximum convenience, the property is just minutes from the airport, shopping, schools—including UH Maui College—and the hospital. There is no homeowners association, giving you added flexibility for future plans. The property offers strong potential for a new main home and cottage, with plenty of space for parking in a highly desirable, accessible location. A rare chance to
