Set within the untouched beauty of Kipahulu, this rare 128-acre legacy parcel offers a level of privacy, scale, and natural richness that is increasingly hard to find. The land unfolds with native koa forest, established fruit trees, a seasonal stream, and stunning ocean views, creating a deeply serene and immersive environment. The land offers access to a spring that offers naturally filtered, pristine water. A cleared building envelope, where a home once stood, provides a rare opportunity to rebuild and design a private estate positioned to capture the surrounding beauty.
