Hale Mahina is a very special surprise (except for many guests, who have discovered this complex and return, year after year). From the front of the complex (i.e., the view "from the street"), you see a parking area and the roadway. From the back of the complex (i.e., from the unit), you see a grassy lawn, palm trees, an inviting pool and hot tub, a sandy beach, two islands, sunsets all year long, turtles (frequently sunning on the sandy beach) and, of course, those whales (in season). Sound good? It is! The even better news is that this unit has been fully and recently
