On the fairway at Pukalani Country Club, with Cook pines lining the edges and the ocean visible on the horizon, 272 Hololani Street is the kind of Upcountry address that doesn't come up often. The covered lanai faces west toward the golf course, with North Shore and South Shore coastline visible in either direction. Sunsets here are a show, almost every night. The trees that line the golf course bring the birds, and the birds bring the mornings to life. A private pool sits just off the main living area. The setting is easy, open, and green in every direction. Twenty-two net-
