For retirees, this rural sanctuary offers the peace you deserve, paired with unmatched convenience—medical services, entertainment, shopping, and government facilities are all just minutes away. For working families, the location adds the bonus of easy access to after-school activities. And for everyone, the benefits of living in a small gated rural community simply can't be overstated. This is far more than a typical second dwelling on two acres. All infrastructure for a main home—water system, electricity, and septic—is already in place. The
