From the moment you step onto the lanai at Hale Napili #4, the view stops you cold; a sweeping panorama of Napili Bay, the blue Pacific stretching to the horizon, and Moloka'i floating in the distance. This is one of the finest ocean view positions in the entire complex, and it belongs to a ground-floor studio that has been beautifully renovated from top to bottom. Sea turtles glide through the shallows below. In winter, humpback whales breach just offshore. Every evening, the sun melts into the ocean right in front of you. This is the view that makes guests call it
