Kahana Sunset Resort is unique in upper West Maui, as it is positioned on the water's edge of Keone Nui Bay, with no view obstruction. A10 is the most private of all units in the A Building with a large adjacent grass area and breathtaking views from both the living room and primary suite on upper level. With exclusive private residences on either side, owners can enjoy a sandy beach, a view of two islands, sunsets every evening with its western exposure, and turtles and whales (in season). The ten 2-bedroom units in the A Building are highly coveted, as they are
