Kahana Sunset Resort is unique in upper West Maui, as it is positioned on the water's edge of Keone Nui Bay, with no view obstruction. With exclusive private residences on either side, owners can enjoy a sandy beach, a view of two islands, sunsets every evening with its western exposure, and turtles and whales (in season). The ten 2-bedroom units in the A Building are highly coveted, as they are truly direct oceanfront and solidly built on top of lava rock. Unit A6 is very well located with a small grass area in front. In the past 20 years, only three units have
