12,197 sqft land $549,000 listing price

Looking for a faster path to building in Upcountry Maui? Pohakuokala Views Unit 6 offers a rare opportunity to secure a 0.28-acre CPR homesite within a planned gated community, with building plans already submitted for permit review. While a future owner is not required to use these plans and may pursue their own design, continuing with the submitted plans could provide a substantial head start and potentially save significant time and costs associated with the design and permitting process. Positioned along the lower rise of the development, Unit 6
