Some properties you tour. This one you earn. Before there is a home, there is a trail. Three quarters of a mile of two-track, cut and faithfully held by hand since 1975, climbing through 105 acres of East Maui jungle near Nahiku, minutes from the best food trucks on the road to Hana. This is not a driveway. It is a threshold. By the time you reach the top, the world you left at the gate has gone quiet, and you understand that privacy here is not just a feature. It is the entire point. At the base sits a gate, covered parking, and a small office with a phone line, the last tether to
