Ground-floor living in one of Maui's most livable planned communities. This freshly painted two-bedroom, one-and-a-half-bath home in Hoolea Terrace at Kehalani sits on the cool, trade-wind slopes of the West Maui Mountains above Wailuku. The air moves here. The temperatures hold. The pace is genuinely neighborhood. Two assigned parking stalls are steps from your front door. Walk in and you may catch yourself stopping: the guest bedroom and front entry frame a quiet ocean view that most people don't expect at this address. Stanford Carr built Hoolea
