Kawela Plantation is known for its expansive ocean views. This lot faces out to Lanai. There is a water meter installed and an existing hose down to shed. In 2025 a shed was put on property for building storage, camp supplies or for hunters gear. The lower portion of lot is favored by those who want arable land / market garden with gentle or flat slopes, with good protection from the strong trade winds. The lower 1/3 of property is away from neighbors and whole property is protected from high winds/ hurricanes, but still gets breezes, not to mention, both sunrise
