Oceanfront on Molokai's south shore, about 4.5 miles from Kaunakakai town, with views straight across to the island of Lanai. The reef out front is part of the longest fringing reef in the country, with calm water for your favorite water activities. Listen to the surf break over the reef, and in winter, hear the whales offshore. Picture your morning coffee on the covered lanai while the channel wakes up, and quiet evenings by the standalone fireplace when the tradewinds turn cool. This is the unhurried side of life on Molokai, where the day is set by the tide and the light
