Ma'alaea Surf captures the spirit of old Hawai'i: a low-density oceanfront community of just 59 residences set across more than five beautifully landscaped acres. Its low-slung, classic Polynesian-style buildings sit directly on Sugar Beach, where nearly three miles of uninterrupted white sand beach invite sunrise walks, swimming, paddling, beachcombing, seasonal whale watching and sunset strolls. Expansive lawns, swaying palms, two swimming pools, a tennis court, pickleball courts, basketball, shuffleboard, barbecue areas and beach-equipment storage
