Unit 1402 is the largest floorplan (B) unit in the complex. The square footage is 1,133 and at that size it feels more like a house than a condo. The unit is also located in one of the most desirable buildings in the complex because it feels more private. It's buffered from the main access street by a grassy, park-like area and there are no buildings in front or back to block the views. Two parking spaces are located directly in front of your unit. Only one step gets you into the unit. The lower level features an open living room and dining area. An updated half bath is just off
