There are places that are beautiful, and then there are places where something rare happens every single day. From this half-acre on the slopes of Haleakala, the setting sun travels along an immense Pacific horizon every evening of the year. — Set on approximately 24,433 square feet, this elevated property overlooks South Maui and coastline below — across the Pacific to Kaho'olawe, Molokini, Lana'i and Moloka'i, with the West Maui Mountains completing the panorama. This South Maui view is found nowhere else in Hawai'i—and even within Maui Meadows, very
