Behold! The most dramatic oceanfront setting and vista situated along the coastline in all of Poipu. Hale Moku (Ship House in Hawaiian) was originally built in 1936 and remodeled over the years, cleverly designed and constructed on a solid lava rock outcropping safely above the waterfront with semi-circular decks off the living room and master (primary) bedroom above, facing the ocean - all which give the strong sense of being on the bow of a ship piercing and advancing through the incoming rolling waves below. The subject property encompasses three contiguous
