Tucked into the landscape on a prime view lot, this hidden gem is barely visible from the street. Wooden gazebo on the top of the property offers stunning views stretching from South Point down along the Ka'u coastline.

A true work of craftsmanship, the original owner built every detail with an artistic touch. The home features travertine and solid oak floors, with cedar and redwood trim. The custom koa wood bar with a stainless footrest creates a versatile space for dining, working, or projects. The bathroom was crafted from reclaimed redwood
