This 2 bedroom cottage is on a very quiet and serene dead-end street very close to the heart of Honoka'a town. Located on a large 18,572 sq ft lot, it is surrounded by lush and mature tropical trees and plants. The front yard is large and grassy, with the home set back from the road. The land behind the home is undeveloped with large trees and feels like a forest. The kitchen was remodeled a few years ago and boasts custom Moreton Bay Chestnut wood cabinetry built by a local woodworker. The bathroom is spacious and has a clawfoot bathtub in it. To the rear of the home
