With its unique and lush landscape and its rugged beauty, Hamakua is one of the most seek-after areas on the island of Hawaii. This 13 plus acres and a 4 bedroom and 6 bathroom (some of them were created without a permit) home is one of the ocean view homes here hide away from the steady grown historical Hilo town. North of the property borders year round Peleau Stream, adding a serene and picturesque touch to the landscape.

A comfortable main house sits on the top of the lot, along with an un-permitted
