Escape to sustainable living with this 1 bedroom, 1 bath off-grid home set on 3 lush acres. Designed with comfort and function in mind, the home is powered by a fully paid-off solar system (with space to add three more 300-watt panels) and features completed, permitted plumbing. A solid foundation ensures the home is stable, with added details like bedroom insulation and rust inhibitor on the walls for durability. The property also includes a propane water heater, a freezer (no fridge), and a carport with a brand-new tarp, along with a new tarp on the water
