Previously partially ripped and leveled, this vacant corner lot in the center of Hawaiian Paradise Park is ready for your vision. Since being bulldozed, the property has been naturally re-landscaped with native 'ohi'a trees, while the area designated for a house pad remains grassy. The eastern portion of the lot remains forested and untouched, leaving a natural buffer for privacy from neighbors. Per Hawaiian Electric, power is available; no SSPP fees. A great location on one of the main roads in and out of Hawaiian Paradise Park.
