Wahi Lani, meaning 'heavenly place' in Hawaiian, embodies the essence of style meeting function in Hanalei Bay. This newly built residence, steps away from the bay's white sands, is a surfer's sanctuary designed for seamless access to surfing and other outdoor activities, offering an ideal blend of life and leisure.

Wahi Lani showcases architectural expertise, with its U-shaped design and lanai, which connect seamlessly to the outdoors. The residence's heart is its central courtyard, framed by walls treated with Shou Sugi Ban, a traditional Japanese
