What an incredible opportunity to bring your vision to life on this 3-acre parcel in paradise! This lot was previously cleared to all four corner pins and still retains the framework of thoughtful preparation. While the property has become partially overgrown, much of the original clearing remains visible, and with some manageable effort, it can be easily restored to its former state. Toward the back of the lot, a sizable area was previously cleared for a house pad, offering a strong starting point for your future build.
