Every element of this residence was designed and directed by the homeowner with a singular vision: to create harmony between modern living and natural materials. From the hand-selected walnut baseboards to the custom glass stairwell panels and layered lighting, each detail was chosen to bring warmth, clarity, and flow. This fully evolved, artfully alive environment is designed for modern coherence. Every finish carries intention: the hand-finished live-edge entry slab that greets you at the door, the organic textures and soft tropical tones that echo throughout, and
