Set on an expansive lot with a generous sense of breathing room, this Waikoloa Village home offers a calm and comfortable setting rarely found this close to town. A fully fenced yard brings privacy the moment you arrive, framed by stone walls, mature palms and wide sweeps of lawn that feel like their own retreat. The single level layout moves easily from one space to the next, with multiple covered lanais that wrap the home in shaded outdoor living spaces perfect for long meals outside, weekend lounging or cooling off after a day at the beach.
