If breathtaking views and unmatched privacy top your wish list, this hilltop masterpiece is a must-see. Rarely found in Waimea, the property offers a serene setting where a seasonal stream and small waterfall meander alongside the paved, private winding driveway—creating a truly magical approach to the home. Built in 1998 as a tribute to “Falling Waters,” the residence showcases distinctive cantilevered construction above the seasonal stream. Designed to embrace its extraordinary surroundings, the home captures unobstructed vistas of Mauna Kea,
